Introduction

For over 40 years, Peninsula Outdoor Painters (“POPs”) has met every Tuesday to paint plein air in a variety of Bay Area locations. We love the variety of the landscapes on the Peninsula. We enjoy the challenge of capturing the ever-changing waves of the Pacific, peaceful rhythms of the Baylands, verdant coastal farms and the colors and textures of San Francisco. Many of us get inspiration to paint from our travels.

Our current Exhibit, “From Bay to Breakers and Beyond”, brings together the work of a group of POPs artists. When we first discussed this Exhibit, we planned to share our paintings with you at the beautiful Twin Pines Art Center, Belmont, CA. However, the shelter-in-place restrictions intervened and we had to find a different way to bring this Exhibit to you. Our solution was to create this Virtual Gallery.

We invite you to scroll through the Virtual Gallery and enjoy our paintings. If you would like more information about these paintings, please contact the artist who sent you the Virtual Gallery or contact Susan Mendelsohn – srmendelsohn@gmail.com -- who will put the artist in touch with you.
